THE LIVING CHURCH

No intelligent, thinking Churchman or Churchwoman should be without a Church paper representing not a local part but the whole national Church. One owes it to himself and to the Church to be constantly in touch with the news and the thought of the Church.

THE LIVING CHURCH is an intellectual power in the Church. With correspondents in every American diocese and abroad, it is able to present the Church's news in condensed, readable form week by week.

It has special papers on special subjects of interest to Churchmen. Neither sectional nor partisan, it seeks to represent the largest, the Catholic thought of the Church.

The late CHAPLAIN DANKER, who received the Croix de Guerre and was killed in action in France, wrote shortly before his death: "THE LIVING CHURCH has been a great comfort to me."

Foreword

The 1926-27 Edition of Stowe's Clerical Directory of the American Church is completed, in so far as it is possible to complete such a work. Never can it be considered absolutely up-to-date, because of the constant changes taking place in the lives of the Clergymen of the Church. It cannot be the last word in accuracy, but every effort has been made to bring it as near to that goal as is possible. That an error may appear in a sketch, revised by the individual, will be sincerely regretted and quite an unpardonable mistake.

As no responses were received, after repeated requests, from some of the Clergymen, these sketches have been revised, as far as possible, by the publisher. These may not be perfectly accurate. The information necessary to make these corrections was obtained from every possible source, but largely through the kindness of the Secretaries of some of the Dioceses; "The Living Church Annual," and "The Living Church," both most dependable publications; also that splendid magazine "The Spirit of Missions." To indicate the fact that these sketches were not personally revised, an asterisk is placed at the end of such sketch.

It is desired to extend to the Bishops and Clergymen who so kindly expressed sympathy and helpful words of much-needed encouragement in the lone undertaking of publishing this edition of the Directory, the deepest gratitude, and to all who responded by returning revised sketches and ordering a copy of the Directory the most sincere appreciation of their assistance.

It is earnestly hoped that this edition will prove to be as helpful and valuable to all as the preceding issues have been.

Abbreviations

The following is a partial list of abbreviations adopted in this book, all of which are not commonly used elsewhere. Where the word "saint" is part of the name of a church or school, a capital "S" is used, and where it is a portion of the designation of a city, the regular "St." is used. In the case of all abbreviations not here listed, the commonly used shortening of the word is used, in this book or such shortened form as clearly indicates the word, the place of which it takes.

Where a dash appears after statement of a position it indicates the subject of the sketch still holds the position.
